FROM OUR PASTOR...

On Monday October 24th I was honoured to represent our parish at the dedication of the James Hansen Auditorium at the Nicholas Mancini Education Center. I joined our Bishop - Douglas Crosby, officials from the Catholic School Board and members of the Hansen family as we reflected on the contributions to Catholic education made by Jim Hansen, a founding member of our parish. Believing strongly that all students belonged in neighbourhood schools with their siblings and friends, Jim developed an 'Each Belongs' philosophy that has been widely adopted throughout Canada and the world. At the place of honour were Pat Hansen, Jim's wife, his three boys; Tony, David and Paul and many of his grandchildren. Congratulations Jim and thank you for your contribution to education in our community and in our world!
